*We must submit the names of students wishing to obtain free courses to the Department of Postsecondary Education for validation. They require us to submit such names after the last day of the schedule change period for the students' desired entry terms. Consequently, when you complete / submit this form, you should pay the tuition / fees for all courses appearing on your class schedule for your desired entry term. Once your eligibility has been validated, your student account will be credited tuition for one, three semester hour course. You then may receive a refund or use the credit towards a future term. However, you should not plan on the free course applying to your first semester at the College.
