Thank-you for applying to Lawson State Community College.

To enhance your beginning experience the college offers a comprehensive New Student Orientation program. New Student Orientation allows incoming students to participate in sessions to learn more about the college, participate in academic advising, pre-register for classes, and gain valuable information on subjects such as financial aid and the college's newly implemented affordable tuition management plan, residential life, athletics, and much more. You may attend one session that is most convenient for you.

Unless exempt, you should take the Compass Placement Assessment prior to attending an orientation session. The Compass assessment administration schedule is available online at:

Dear student,

Greetings! As a first time or transfer applicant to Lawson State Community College, I invite you to attend one of our upcoming new student orientation sessions created to support those entering summer term. To enhance your beginning experience the college offers a comprehensive New Student Orientation program. New Student Orientation allows incoming students to participate in sessions to learn more about the college, participate in academic advising, pre-register for classes, and gain valuable information on subjects such as financial aid and the college's newly implemented affordable tuition management plan, residential life, athletics, and much more. You may attend one session which is most convenient for you.

If you applied for admission but have not yet received your acceptance letter because I.D. information has not yet been provided, you are invited to attend orientation. Please bring the require I.D. information (see insert) with you. Unless exempt, please take the Compass Placement Assessment prior to attending an orientation session. The Compass assessment administration schedule is available online at: www.lawsonstate.edu/Prospective Students
