

RESUME

Patricia G. McCullum
7209 Crown Ridge Drive
Trussville, Alabama 35173

EDUCATION

Miles College, Birmingham, Alabama:

Bachelor of Arts Degree, Major – Sociology

Clark Atlanta University, Atlanta, Georgia:

Master of Arts Degree, Major – Sociology

- Master Thesis Topic: “Sociological Fears of Junior High School Students: A Cross Sectional Approach”.

University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

Graduate Credits

- Twelve hours obtained above the master degree in Administration in Higher Education

Alabama State University, Montgomery, Alabama

Graduate Credits

- Nineteen hours obtained in Guidance and Counseling

HONORS AND AWARDS

Received Atlanta University Achievement Award

Awarded Outstanding Young Woman in America Award

Who’s Who in the South and Southwest

Outstanding Teacher of the Year

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Chairperson

September 1980-Present: Chairperson Social/Behavioral Sciences Dept. – Lawson State Community College, Birmingham, Alabama

Duties:

- Supervise faculty members of the Social/Behavioral Sciences Dept.
- Advise students in the Social/Behavioral Sciences Dept

Page Two

Resume

Patricia G. McCullum

- Develop the Academic Schedule for the Department
- Develop Programs of study for the Department

Instructor

September 1972-Present: Lawson State Community College, Birmingham, Alabama.

Instructor in the Social/Behavioral Sciences Department. Subjects taught:

- Various Social/Behavioral Sciences Courses
- Sociology
- Criminal Justice
- Education
- Anthropology

Researcher

September 1971-1972 – University of Alabama Medical Center, Birmingham, Alabama.

Research in the Epidemiologist Department.

Professional Membership

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)

Southern Sociological Association

National Education Association

Alabama Education Association