

RESUME

Jonathan Eldridge
7105 Canada Avenue
Birmingham, Alabama 35224
(205) 780-8750

Marital Status
Married
Mrs. Marguerita B. Eldridge

Children: 6

Present Career Objective

To be able to teach others the basic skills of masonry, whereby they (the students)can earn a profitable and confortable living in today's society.

Personnel Qualifications

Respectable and pleasant personality; cooperative with fellow workers; looking for a rewarding challenge; interested in self- contracting; excellent health; participate in swimming, leather craft and fishing.

Experience

Masonry (Self- Contracting) from 1975 to 2003.

Masonry Instructor (Part-time) Lawson State Community College Technical Division – September 1980 to 1985.

Masonry Instructor/ Department Chairperson Lawson State Community College Correctional Division – August 1989 to present.

Structual/ Masonry Shop Chief (Base Civil Engineers, Air National Guard Unit, Birmingham Municipal Airport)–1984 to2000.

Release Forman/ Laborer United States Steel Corporation, Fairfield, Alabama – 1973 to 1980.

United States Armed Forces (Army- Military Policeman) – 1971 to 1973.

Education

1990 Alabama A&M University (Master of Science Degree) Technical Education

1986 Athens State College (Bachelor of Science Degree) Technical Education.

1974 – 1979 Lawson State Community College Technical Division (Certificates received in the following areas: Masonry, Carpentry, Electrical and Barbering (1994-95)

1967 – 1971 Miles College, Fairfield, Alabama (2 years credited toward my B.S. Degree)

1967 G.W.Carver High School (Graduated)

Religious Affiliation

Faith Chapel Christian Center (non- Denominational)

Professional Membership and Organizations

Alabama Education Association
National Masonry Instructors Association
Correctional Education Association