RATIONALE

In accordance with the strategic planning process of Lawson State Community College as mandated by the State Board of Education and the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, the mission statement of the college must undergo periodic review. The most recent review resulted in recommendations to modify it. The Criteria for Accreditation of the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools stipulates that the mission statement of each institution must be approved by the governing board. The revised Mission Statement for Lawson State Community College, last approved by the Board on June 23, 2005, is therefore submitted to the Board for its approval.
