

Crack the QEP Code Contest

Be the first to win $100.00 in bookstore gift certificates today!

Coming fall 2010, Lawson State is changing its Freshman Orientation course and will create one of the most exciting ventures to hit its campus, the Freshman Academy. Immersed in a high tech environment, students will be equipped, engaged and empowered for successful transition into college life.

Join the excitement. Answer these five questions correctly, send in your response to the email address below, and you will be entered into a drawing to win $100 in bookstore coupons. We are selecting 5 winners from all submitted entries. See the hint below to increase your chances of winning.

Contest starts on November 2nd and ends on November 20th at 3:00 p.m. Early entries will not be considered. Winners will be announced online.

QEP Video Contest Questions

1. What does e³4 Life mean?
2. What will the FAME instructors be responsible for?
3. The new course is being designed as part of Lawson's QEP. What does QEP stand for?
4. During the QEP video, the Freshman Academy curriculum was discussed. What was one project highlighted in the video?
5. What are the seven student learning outcomes associated with the Freshman Academy course?

Hint: Find the QEP video on Lawson's webpage or in Blackboard. Launch date: November 2nd

How to play: Email your answers to QEPFAME@lawsonstate.edu. In order to participate, you must be a currently enrolled student who has registered. Five winners will be drawn from all entries submitted. NOTE: Only one entry per student. Be sure to include your name and phone number within your emailed entry. The contest starts on November 2, 2009 and ends on November 20, 2009 (at 3:00 p.m.). Winners will be announced that same day via our website. Go for it! Send in your answers today. You could be one of our lucky winners.