Interested in Teaching Dual Enrollment Courses on Your High School Campus?

Join Our Team

Faculty Recruiting Drive
If you have a Masters degree and have an interest in teaching part-time (after school) in your discipline, let’s talk.

Lawson State is actively recruiting qualified faculty to teach on your high school campus after school.

See if you pass this basic qualification test

Minimum Criteria for General Studies Areas:

- Must have an earned Master’s degree from an accredited college
- Must have at least 18 (Master level) credit hours in pure discipline classes

We are Recruiting for the following disciplines:
Biology, English (for Humanities Only), Chemistry, History, Psychology, Sociology, Physical Education, Music, Art, Speech Communications, Foreign Language, Computer Science, Criminal Justice

Minimum Criteria for Career Technical Programs (Varies, Contact Us!):

We are Recruiting for the following disciplines:

Interested? Contact Us at: HSenroll@lawsonstate.edu
Participating Schools:

- Bessemer High School
- Fairfield High School
- Huffman High School
- Jackson Olin High School
- Midfield High School
- Parker High School
- Ramsey High School
- Wenonah High School
- Woodlawn High School

Contact Us for Participation:

If your school is not listed above, and you would like to join, contact us at: HSenroll@lawsonstate.edu.